

Shams Asadi

Deputy Independent Officer for Security and Health and dep. head of the Anti-Discriminations Office of the City of Vienna (since 2009)

She studied City and Regional Planning abroad before she arrived in Vienna, where she graduated from the University of Technology. Asadi has many years of practical and academic experience in Urban Regeneration and Urban Development with focus on gender mainstreaming and diversity. European and other international cooperations are a central focus of her career (1993-2009).

She is member of the Equality Commission of the Viennese state teachers, certified manager in the public services, scientific researcher and teaching staff in universities in Vienna and abroad, MiA-Award Winner in the category of "Science & Research" (2008), co-founder and vice-president of the MiM-Association (an independent platform for promotion of intercultural dialog) and member of advisory board of the cultural association "SOHO in Ottakring".